PROGRAMME

7.45-8.00 AM Registration

8.00-8.10 Welcome address: Bernie Batas MD

8.10 to 12.15:

Thermography, history, guidelines, physiology, and autonomic testing.

Session Moderators:

Bernie Batas MD and Anthony F. Kirkpatrick, MD.,Ph.D.

8.10- 8.50 Jeffrey M. Cohen M.D. Discuss the history of thermography, clinical indications for thermography and some representative cases imaged at the Rusk Institute of Rehabilitation Medicine Chronic Pain Laboratory.

8.50-9.35 Robert Schwartz MD An overview of the AAT Guidelines and clinical applications in Musculoskeletal Infrared Thermography

9.35-10.00 Kraiyuth Vongxaiburana, MD: Neurophysiology of Pain

10.00-10.30 Ram Purohit DVM, PhD, Thermographic evaluation of long term effects of neurectomies on peripheral circulation and its reassessment.

10.30-10.45 Coffee Break

Autonomic Testing:

Moderators. Gerald S. Goldberg, MD. and Ram Purohit DVM, PhD

10.45 – 11.30 Philip Hoekstra, PhD: Autonomic challenge, methodology, clinical indications and quality assurance.

11.30 – 12.15 Timothy D Conwell, DC: Functional Cold H₂O Autonomic Challenge Testing – Physiology, Pathology, Interpretation

12.15- 1.15 Lunch

Afternoon Session. 1.15 to 4.30 PM:

MRI/EMG correlation, animal model for pain research, recent developments, drug testing and "RSD Look Alikes and Unusual Syndromes" and sports injury.

Moderators. Jeffrey M. Cohen M.D. Robert Schwartz MD

1.15 – 1.45 Gerald S. Goldberg, M.D. Neurological indications for thermography in chronic pain syndromes. Correlation with MRI and EMG.

1.45 – 2.15 Ram Purohit DVM, PhD Thermographic evaluation of Sensory-Sympathetic Pain in Animals. Discussion on animal model for pain research.

2.15 - 3.00 Anthony F. Kirkpatrick, M.D., Ph.D.: Recent Developments in the Management of Complex Regional Pain Syndrome / Reflex Sympathetic Dystrophy.

3.00 - 3.15 Coffee Break

Moderators: Anthony F. Kirkpatrick, M.D., Ph.D. Philip Hockstra. PhD

3.15 - 3.30 Srinivasa Govindan MD Monitoring drug effect in migraine and Chronic Pain.

3.30 - 3.50 Robert Schwartz MD. New applications and Role of thermography in "RSD Look Alikes and Unusual Syndromes".

3.50 - 4.15 Richard Herrick MD Sports injury RSD and use of thermography. Clinical cases and use of thermography in monitoring treatment and prognosis

4.15 - 4.30 Q&A

2nd-3rd May. 2006

IPEM & UKTA Meeting, Cardiff International Arena

Clinical Temperature Measurement and Thermography

33RD ANNUAL MEETING
AMERICAN ACADEMY OF THERMOLOGY
and the
INTERNATIONAL COLLEGE OF MEDICAL THERMOLOGY

Seeking: Submission of abstracts for tutorials and scientific presentations (oral communication and posters). We are actively seeking conference participation from thermologists from all countries and disciplines. Please see reverse for abstract submission form.

Scientific Papers: Current research or clinical papers pertaining to infrared thermography. 20-minute oral presentations (15-minute talk/5-minute question period) or posters. Topic areas include: pain, worker's comp, international presenters track, veterinary medicine, student presentations, basic physiology and IR, neuromuscular, breast, musculoskeletal pathology, equipment, and other.

Tutorials: Critical reviews, analysis, or material relevant to the current state of knowledge or information that will promote scientific understanding of thermography (30-minute presentations). May include historical presentations, evaluation of current procedures/techniques, basic physiology as imaged by infrared thermography, tips for improving scientific/clinical presentations, preparation for journal publication, etc. Authors will be requested to send an abstract and a brief outline of the content area to be covered.

Special Interest Groups: Session time will be provided for special interest groups to get together and discuss important issues that will help to advance the understanding and use of thermography.

Deadline for submission of abstracts and outlines:
January 16, 2007

To submit an abstract (see form on reverse), e-mail:
David D. Pascoe, Ph.D., Chairman, Scientific Program at pascodd@auburn.edu

To register, see the conference web site at: www.vetmed.auburn.edu (Look for a tentative conference schedule after January 31 at this web site, along with convenient directions, maps, and accommodations listings.)
